Enemy Rocket, Mortar Attack Slams Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — Enemy rockets smashed into the center of Saigon for the first time in two months today and mortars hit more than a dozen other cities and allied installations in a fifth straight day of widespread enemy attacks.

Heavy ground fighting also was reported at half a dozen points.

Military communiques reported 45 Vietnamese civilians were killed and 117 wounded in the rain of more than 500 rockets and mortars that hit Saigon and cities to the northwest and south. A Japanese news correspondent, Tatsuo Sakai, 33, also became the 19th correspondent to die in the war. Only five Americans were reported wounded in the widespread shelling.

An American soldier was fatally shot in the back while cycling in downtown Saigon. The shooting touched off a running motorcycle gun battle that left a South Vietnamese soldier and one of the three Vietnamese assailants wounded. The wounded assailant was later captured. The two other men escaped.

Fighting Heavy
The intensified pace of the war included shelling and ground attacks against at least six allied bases blocking invasion routes into Saigon and a fifth straight day of heavy fighting for control of a road 40 miles northwest of Saigon. The road is a vital supply route for American forces astride a key Viet Cong infiltration corridor leading from Cambodia.

A senior U.S. officer said the stepped up fighting across the country—with more than 1,400 enemy troops reported killed since last Sunday—could be the start of the long-awaited third

Viet Cong offensive. But he qualified this by adding that "It's too early to make an assessment."

Gen. Creighton W. Abrams' headquarters termed the renewed shelling of Saigon "indiscriminate harassing rocket attacks."

Fire At Shops
Abrams, riding in a military jeep, toured some of the areas in Saigon that were hit by the 20-round barrage of 100-pound Russian-made rockets.

Viet Cong gunners also fired rockets on a U.S. Navy ammunition ship and three merchant ships, including the British tanker Calter Newcastle, in the Long Tau channel to Saigon. Headquarters said two of the ships received minor damage.

U.S. headquarters said the rockets that hit Saigon were fired from positions southeast of the capital.

"Counter-artillery was fired within three minutes on suspected enemy positions with unknown results," headquarters said.

Allied forces repulsed all of the ground attacks, headquarters said, with the help of dive-bombers, artillery and helicopter gunships.

During attacks on two American fire bases around Tay Ninh City, 45 miles northwest of Saigon, American artillerymen turned their big howitzers point-blank at charging North Vietnamese.

U. S. Deaths Low

Military spokesmen said that 82 enemy were killed in the ground assaults on the two bases of the U. S. 25th Infantry Division, American casualties were six killed and 30 wounded.

Headquarters also announced that 159 American soldiers were killed in the war last week, the second lowest weekly figure this year.

The new figures brought the war's U.S. death toll to 26,793 as opposed to 379,564 for the enemy.

Kennedy Asks End To War

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts returned to political activity Wednesday with a call for an end to the war in Vietnam and a statement that he is not a candidate for any office this year.

Kennedy was stern and serious as he made his first public speech since the assassination of his brother Sen. Robert F. Kennedy June 5.

His audience, 1,200 members and guests of the Worcester Chamber of Commerce, gave him ovations at the opening and end of his speech. There were seven interruptions for rounds of applause.

Sen. Kennedy told his audience he had been silent since the assassination of another brother, and said during the 10 weeks since then he had been advised by many to retire from public life, "for safety's sake."

"But there is no safety in hiding," he said. "Not for me, nor for any of us here today; and not for our children who will inherit the world we make for them."

Kennedy proposed a four-point program for an end to the Vietnam war:

1. To end unconditionally all bombing of North Vietnam;
2. To then negotiate with Hanoi the mutual withdrawal from South Vietnam of all foreign forces, both allied and North Vietnamese;
3. To accompany this withdrawal with whatever help we can give to the South Vietnamese in building of a viable political, economic and legal structure that will not collapse upon our departure;
4. To demonstrate to both Hanoi and Saigon the sincerity of our intentions by significantly decreasing this year the level of our military activity and military personnel in the South.

U.S. Seeks Soviet Condemnation

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The United States sought support today for a Security Council resolution that would condemn the Soviet Union and its Warsaw Pact allies for invading Czechoslovakia and demand an immediate troop withdrawal without reprisals or bloodshed.

The 15-nation council met at 11:30 a.m. for another round of debate on the crisis. Czechoslovakia, overrun by the Soviet Union and other hard-time followers, had the support of the United States and the Western powers.

The Western powers were aware that their resolution faced certain big power veto from the Soviet Union. But they were seeking the biggest support possible in the Council, believing that would have maximum impact on world opinion and might influence Soviet actions in Czechoslovakia.

Push Resolution

The United States was pushing for a resolution that would have the Council pronounce the invasion a violation of the U.N. Charter and call for respect for Czechoslovakia's territorial integrity, political independence and right of self-determination.

In addition to condemning the armed intervention it would request a withdrawal without bloodshed or reprisals.

The resolution would also ask Secretary-General U Thant to keep the issue under review and report back to the Council on implementation of the resolution.

Diplomatic sources said there was wide agreement on such a resolution, but they could not say how many sponsors it would attract, nor how it would emerge in a final draft.

The Council met in emergency session for nearly five hours Wednesday night with a break for dinner.

U.S. Chief Delegate George W. Ball said he strongly appealed for "immediate action of the council . . . We have the responsibility to act and act quickly."

Faces Veto

Any resolution faces an almost certain Soviet veto and this was foreshadowed by Soviet delegate Jacob Malik's bitter opposition to any U.N. discussion of the issue at all.

Malik was impassive and, for most of the session Wednesday, wore dark glasses.

His performance lacked fire and Britain's Lord Caradon commented that the Russian diplomat had the council's "compassion" because it realized his "disgust at having to defend such a disgraceful act. No wonder he carried so little conviction."

"Your compassion is in vain, Lord Caradon," Malik retorted. "I am proud that here in this council I defend a just cause."

Malik insisted that the Soviet Union and its allies had moved into Czechoslovakia at the invitation "of the government of that state. It is the government of that state which requested aid from its allies."

At no time did he identify the persons who sent the alleged invitation and Ball retorted "the Soviet armed forces were not invited into Czechoslovakia by anybody—they are uninvited guests."

In the session's most dramatic moment, Czechoslovak delegate Jan Muzik read the council three documents received by radio from Prague in which his country's top leaders and all government organs said they knew nothing in advance of the Soviet move, appealed for the foreign troops to get out and urged the people to keep calm.

He spoke in slow, measured tones and refrained so far as possible from open contention with Malik.

"I want to convince Ambassador Malik," he said, "that my government's only aim is to protect the rights of the workers of Czechoslovakia and the security of the socialist camp."

LBJ To Press Arms Control
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration intends to press for arms control and other East-West accords despite the milestone Russian invasion of Czechoslovakia has hung on U.S.-Soviet relations.

The prospect of far-reaching talks between the United States and Russia on nuclear missile and antimissile curbs are still alive, authoritative U.S. sources said Wednesday.

President Johnson has not canceled the newly inaugurated New York-Moscow air service, clamped down on trade with Russia or suspended U.S.-Soviet cultural exchanges although such options remained open.

A U.S. military response was ruled out from the beginning. The immediate U.S. strategy has been to try for some relief of Czechoslovakian liberals by joining in the outcry of world public opinion against the Russian move.

Johnson publicly denounced the Soviet action Wednesday. Ambassador George W. Ball protested at the U.N. Security Council and the government's Voice of America radio tripled its Russian-language broadcasts.

"It is never too late for reason to prevail," Johnson said in appealing for urgent United Nations action.

"The Czechoslovakian government did not request its allies to interfere in its internal affairs," Johnson said. "No external aggression threatened Czechoslovakia."

Executive Wins Monkey Barrel
ST. LOUIS (AP) — Earl Breen, an auto parts company executive has won a barrel of monkeys.

"I'll never use that expression again," said Breen as he pondered what to do with a barrel filled with the five lively ring-tail monkeys he won in a national contest.

Breen managed to get rid of one of the animals. It will be the door prize at a celebrity bowling night in Ballwin, Mo. He is still casting about for a way to unload the others.

Hostages Freed
Columbus policemen, state highway patrolmen and National Guardsmen streamed through the hole in the wall and down ropes from the roof. Staccato bursts of automatic rifle fire and the roar of shotguns was heard seconds later.

Reform Leader Held In Custody

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovaks massed today on Vaclavské Namesti, Prague's main square, in a violent demonstration against the Soviet-led occupation and the arrest of their reform-minded Communist chief, Alexander Dubcek.

Ignoring requests by the clandestine Prague radio to maintain calm to avoid giving the foreign soldiers an excuse for further violence, a crowd of about 20,000 shook their fist at the Russians and shouted: "Russian murders go home!" They called for Dubcek's release.

Shots were heard from the square. It could not be determined immediately whether the soldiers were aiming at demonstrators or loosing warning shots into the air.

Soviet tank troops, who had been covering all approaches to the square since their arrival Wednesday, immediately closed all bridges across the Vltava River, which divides the city.

The move came as Czechoslovak Communists, reacting to the occupation by 200,000 Russian and Kremlin-line satellite troops, convened in an extraordinary party congress that its liberal leadership had originally scheduled to open Sept. 9.

This was a last-ditch attempt to force the troops to leave through political pressure.

The clandestine liberal radio announced 927 delegates met at 11:20 a.m. Though the broadcast did not specify the site, the delegates had been urged to go to the liberal-controlled CKD factory on the outskirts of Prague.

Tanks Guard Hotel
Under arrangements that had been made by Dubcek, 1,500 members would have been on hand for the September meeting. In that session it had been expected he would out conservative opponents from the ruling party Presidium and the Central Committee.

The seven Central Committee members who have declared loyalty to the Soviet-led occupation troops, tried to shift today's meeting to the party-owned Praha Hotel.

Soviet tanks and armored cars guarded the approaches to the hotel. Several black limousines were parked outside.

The liberal station broadcast warnings to congress delegates not to go to the hotel, which it said was a trap.

The calling of the congress was another attempt to discredit the pro-Soviet members of the Presidium, who include Slovak party chief Vasil Bilak and Dr. Kolar, a former head of economic planning.

The liberal radio this morning mentioned Rude Pravo editor Oldrich Svestka as one of the pro-Soviet members, but later broadcasts dropped his name.

He was reported arrested by Soviet troops Wednesday, although he has come out against some of Dubcek's policies in the past.

Dubcek In Custody
Dubcek himself was still in Soviet custody, along with other leading members of his liberal regime.

The radio said a general strike started in the South Bohemian district to protest the occupation.

The radio also called on the army to protect President Ludvik Svoboda and not to take orders from anyone except from the legal government.

Czechoslovak secret police, who have kept in the background since Dubcek took over in January, were arresting prominent writers and journalists.

Witnesses reported hundreds of political prisoners were arriving at Pankrac Prison.

Latin America Welcomes Pope

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Pope Paul VI arrived today on the first papal visit to Latin America and was greeted by upwards of 10,000 persons at the airport.

A cool wind blew over the vast plain where this 8,600-foot high city nestles between the ranges of the Andes as the blue and white Avianca jetliner completed the long journey from Rome, bringing the Pope to the 39th Eucharistic Congress.

Police and troops in steel helmets patrolled the route to the airport as city folks in their Sunday best mingled with peasants to get vantage points for a view of the pontiff.

A scarlet carpet was unrolled to the plane, leading to a stand where dignitaries were gathered, headed by President Carlos Lleras Restrepo.

The pontiff's visit was marred by his concern over the Soviet bloc invasion of Czechoslovakia.

The Pope was kept informed on the crisis throughout his 12-hour flight.

As the Pope's plane first entered Colombia's air space, the Bogota radio began playing the national anthem and the announcer said: "Welcome to Colombia, Holy Father."

Ford Family Split On Endorsements
DETROIT (AP)—Henry Ford II, chairman of Ford Motor Co., endorsed Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey for the Democratic presidential nomination Wednesday and said he was looking forward to Humphrey's successful bid for the White House.

The endorsement, sent in a telegram, disclosed a split in the Ford family. Recently, a brother, William Clay Ford, announced he was backing the candidacy of Minnesota Sen. Eugene McCarthy.

William Ford, owner of the Detroit Lions of the National Football League, reportedly holds the largest single block of stock in the auto company.

Doctors Report Ike 'Unchanged'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower continued to show increased evidences of heart "irritability" today but Army doctors said his over-all condition is unchanged and still critical.

The irritability mentioned in the latest bulletin first appeared Wednesday night and refers to a weakening in the nerves that operate the heart muscles.

This morning's report by the doctors at Walter Reed Army Hospital added that the term also means extra beats or irregularity in the heart rhythm.

"In spite of his long illness," said the medical report, "he has remained cheerful and continues to see members of his immediate family for brief periods daily. His vital signs remain stable and his over-all condition must be viewed as unchanged but still critical."

The report said that the 77-year-old Eisenhower continues to rest comfortably and has been in no pain.

Parochial School Aid Stirs Debate

LANSING (AP)—Friends and foes of state aid to parochial schools clashed for seven hours Wednesday at the third of five legislative public hearings held on the controversial issue.

As in earlier debates, proponents said some form of aid is needed to keep nonpublic schools from folding, that private schools often prove better for poor students than public schools, and that private school parents now bear a double burden of taxation.

Meet In Escanaba
Opponents said state aid would encourage proliferation of private schools, lead to government controls over them, and further weaken support for already hard-pressed public schools.

The 10-member House-Senate committee previously had held in Warren and Bay City and has scheduled hearings Aug. 27 in Escanaba and Aug. 29 in Muskegon. The Escanaba hearing will be at 8 p. m., at the State Office Building.

"Nonpublic schools... are anxious to remain in business to meet the public need for secular education," said John F. Choitz, president of the two-year-old Michigan Association of Nonpublic Schools. "They are saying, 'we need money to keep our doors open, just like all schools do.'"

Choitz urged that "serious thought be given to a sum equivalent" to half of the $615 million in nonretirement state aid to public schools.

Don O. Tatroe, chairman of the legislation committee of the Michigan Association of School Administrators, warned that making aid available to private schools would encourage formation of more private schools.

"You should envision schools for the Amish, the Roman Catholics, the Ukrainian Catholics, the Seventh Day Adventists, the Calvinists, the Black Muslims and the rich," Tatroe said.

Oppose Proposal
Spokesmen for the State Association of School Boards, the State PTA and the Michigan Council of Churches also opposed the state aid proposal.

A bill providing state-paid cash grants of from $50 to $15 per private-school pupil costing an estimated $21 million, was introduced in the Legislature this year, but died in committee. The issue is certain to be before lawmakers next year.

One Of Army Air Corps Original Volunteers Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP) — M. Sgt. Carl Truman Hale, among 16 enlisted men who formed the first company in the Army Air Corps, is dead at 81.

He died of cancer Monday, 56 years after he volunteered for the "flying experiment" while on duty with the Signal Corps in Alaska.

When he made out transfer papers to the Air Corps, fore-runner of the Air Force, Hale said his first sergeant scoffed: "You'll be sorry. Them things ain't safe. You'll just get killed, that's all."

Hale retired in 1938, with 30 years of service. He is survived by his widow and two children.

Peacock Opens Spur Station

Jim Peacock, 314 N. 19th St., has the lights on and the pumps running today at his attractive new Spur station at 805 Stephenson Ave., where that busy street joins Washington Ave. and Sheridan Road. The station has been operating since Monday and Peacock says that he will have a formal grand opening of the new facility later when all of its departments are fully operative.

Several buildings were removed to clear the large site for the station, which has two islands and three pumps under a canopy. Each of the pumps is a blending machine which can dispense 5 different grades of gasoline.

The station is owned by the Murphy Oil Co., which operates another Spur station on N. 23rd St., near the North Western Railway viaduct. Peacock will offer motor tuneup, muffler replacement and other services at the station.

Library Patrons May Rent Fine Works Of Art
Escanaba Public Library invites art lovers who are without the means to cover their walls with the paintings they might desire to consider the collection owned by the library.

Any adult registered borrower of the library can check out a framed reproduction. One picture per family per month is the quota, but this provides a fresh picture for the home before the family tires of one scene or portrait. The picture cannot be renewed, but may be obtained again at a later date.

Cost of the rental is 50 cents per loan period, payable in advance. The person renting the picture accepts full responsibility for loss or damage to the picture from the time it leaves the library until its return.

About 25 reproductions are available by such artists as Cezanne, Picasso, Renoir, Van Gogh, Monet, Vermeer, and Utrillo—among others.

Pictures can be reserved by calling Escanaba Public Library phone 786-4463 or 786-4464.

Award Grants To Needy Students At Bay College
Dr. Richard Rinehart announced today that Bay de Noc Community College has received Federal Economic Opportunity grant funds for the 1968-69 school year to help youth of exceptional financial need obtain the monetary assistance necessary to attend college.

Students whose financial need has been made known to the college and who met the federal criteria established have been awarded grants totaling $3,400.

Students whose financial need may not be known to the admissions office are encouraged to apply.

Mrs. Virginia Rusch, financial aid officer, will receive the applications from interested students. The funds are limited and all who apply may not necessarily receive grants but there is no limit to number of applications. Upper classmen will be considered on the same basis as entering freshmen.

Applications may be secured in the college student personnel office Room 17.

It's Good Time For Lawn Care Before Fall
Most lawns have received at least one fertilization this year; in most cases a fertilizer high in nitrogen. If the lawn needs additional fertility a complete fertilizer with considerable phosphate and potash should be used. For the rest of the growing season green grass is wanted but there is also need to develop a good root system for next year's grass. A 12-12-12 fertilizer at 15 pounds per 1,000 square feet will do the job.

Fall is also a good time to control broadleaf weeds. Dandelion and plantain are easily controlled at this time with 2-4-D. Chickweed and other more difficult weeds to kill can be eradicated with Silvex.

Powdery mildew is often a problem in late summer and fall on Kentucky Blue grass growing in shade. This disease can be controlled with Karathane but in the long run it would be best to grow a shade adapted grass such as creeping or red fescue.

If you have been cutting your lawn rather short all summer, change the procedure and cut at 1½ to 2 inches throughout the fall. A very close mowing before growth starts in the spring is advisable but not in the fall. Small bare spots in the lawn no larger than a person's hand should fill in by themselves. Larger areas need reseeding. Now is the time to do this but no later than Sept. 1.

Boy, 5, Drowns Hunting Frogs
HARRIETTA (AP) — Richard Fox Jr., 5, told his frog hunting companion Wednesday he planned to cool off by wading in a man-made pond where they had been looking for frogs. Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fox Sr. of Harrietta in Wexford County, apparently slipped on the clay bottom of the pond and drowned in seven feet of water, State Police said.

His body was recovered by Harrietta school Teacher Donald Spolyar who applied mouth to mouth aid but the boy failed to respond. Richard was dead on arrival at Mercy Hospital in nearby Cadillac.

Florida was the first state in the Union to be permanently settled by Europeans, in 1565.

Rock
Onni Johnson and son, Jeffrey, have returned after vacationing in Colorado. After returning home the family spent three days in the Copper Country.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Wills and family returned to Merrill, Wis., after spending four days with the Albert Weldum family, and visiting the Ted Weldums in Ishpeming.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvo Rossi of Longview, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson of Chicago, vacationed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arvo Huttula. Mrs. Rossi, and Mrs. Johnson are Huttula's sisters.

Nancy Weldum left Monday with 33 other Delta County 4-H'ers on a chartered bus for the State 4-H Show in East Lansing. She is representing Delta County in the modeling show. ## Dodge Unveils Sporty Models

ATLANTA (AP) — Dodge Division of Chrysler Corp. made a strong bid for the youth market today as it showed off its 1969 car offerings featuring sporty names like Dart Swinger and Super Bee.

Robert B. McCurry, Chrysler vice president and general manager of the Dodge Division, estimated its sales would wind up at a new high of 585,000 cars for the 1968 model year and he predicted the total would be topped by the '69 run.

The Dart Swinger, a two-door hardtop powered by a 340 cubic inch engine and including an orange-red painted job that McCurry predicted would go over big in the youth market, took a lot of the spotlight.

More than 300 newsmen saw the new Dodge line at the firm's national press preview here. The cars go on sale in mid-September.

Over all, the new Dart has the same measurements — 111-inch wheelbase and 195.4 inches over-all length — as in 1968 but it got a new body side treatment plus a new black grille and a black rear deck applique in the new model run.

Dodge Charger and Dodge Coronet got newly designed grilles, tail lamps and ornamentation for 1969.

The biggest change was in the standard sized Polara and Monaco line which had its over-all length upped two inches to 222, its height lowered half an inch and newly designed interiors added.

A new luxury series called the Monaco Brougham was added to the Dodge line and featured four-door hardtop and sedan models.

Many Attend Music Camp

MARQUETTE — A record 409 junior and senior high school students attended Northern Michigan University's 18th annual summer music camp this month.

The young musicians, twirlers and drum majors spent five hours a day rehearsing and also participated in numerous recreational activities including picnics and dances.

Concluding the camp program, which was directed by Dr. Harold E. Wright, head of NMU's music department, was a public "festival of concerts."

Attending the camp from this area were:

Betty Knauf, Bark River; Debby Baum, Marcia Bengry, Loretta Bonifas, Jay Bradshaw, Nancy Delforge, Ann Diedrich, Sally DuFour, Lee E. Erickson, Ellen Foster, Linda Fudala, Patricia A. Gayan, Denise Goulais, Kathryn Greis, Rosemary Hakes, Linda Hivala, Thomas J. Lang, Susan LeMire, Mary Beth Lippold, Karin Lundeen, Debbie L. Mathis, Marti Meyer, Nick Micensky, Kay Ness, Patrick Ness, Matthew Neumeier, Susan Oinas, Darryl Pepin, Janet Pierson, Mary Pratt, Katie Prinski, Mary K. Ryan, Dave Short, Bruce Turner, John Vogt, Judy Wessel, all of Escanaba.

Kathryn Becvar, Carla Fletcher, Jan K. Hess, Sue Labre, Michele LaPine, Ruthann Martin, Karen Montgomery, Karolyn Olson, Michelle Switzer, all of Gladstone; Sandra Kaye Webber, Gulliver; Sara Brandstrom, Marie Lesica, Mary Kay McKilligan, Meg Moffat, Jon Orhanen, Melinda L. Orr, Bradley Putvin, Sharon Renk, Robert Stram, Ann Marie Weber, all of Manistique and Gail O'Connell, Wells.

Births

WELLS — At 10:25 a.m. on Aug. 21, a daughter, Mario Rae, weighing 7 pounds and 3 ounces was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Wells of Powers. Mrs. Wells was Dawn Hawrylow.

North Central Wins Highest Safety Award

North Central Airlines has received the National Safety Council's highest aviation safety award for 1967.

The Council's Award of Honor was presented to North Central in recognition of the airline's perfect safety record in 1967.

North Central has earned a safety citation every year since it began scheduled operations in February 1948. During this 20-year period, the Minneapolis-St. Paul-based airline has carried 17.8 million passengers and flown 2.9 billion passenger miles without a single fatality or injury to any of its passengers.

North Central presently serves 90 cities in 11 Midwest states and Canada over a 7,500-mile route system.

Briefly Told

The S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A. annual wife's party will be held tonight at Ollie Nelson's cottage on M-35 beginning at 7 p.m.

There will be an immunization clinic from 2 to 4 p.m. on Friday at the Delta County Building.

Lucille Martin, Rte. 2, Bark River, hit a deer with her automobile on County Rd. 551 about two miles south of County Rd. 569 Thursday, State Police reported. She was not injured.

State Police issued traffic summons Thursday to Elizabeth Decker, 600 S. 10th St., Escanaba, speeding; Steven Pyke, Rapid River, speeding and Hildegard Thiele, Pittsburgh, Pa., no trailer plates.

Two LaPine brothers of Gladstone, Pat, 20 and Pete, 18 celebrated their birthdays Wednesday. They were both born Aug. 21.

New City Hall

MUSKEGON (AP) — Work is expected to start next week on a $1.3 million city hall complex, scheduled for completion in December, 1969. The present municipal building was dedicated 86 years ago and voters recently approved construction of the new building.

Home Weapons Worry Police

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit Police Department study concludes that widespread ownership of guns has made the city's homesteads more dangerous than bars, alleys and after-hours drinking spots.

"A few years ago, someone might have been punched in the nose and that would be all," commented Lt. Elmer J. Reed, executive officer of the homicide bureau in pointing out that two thirds of the city's gun deaths involve related or acquainted people.

"But today, someone grabs the gun he or she obtained for protection and ends the argument permanently," Reed added.

The latest of 244 homicides committed in Detroit so far this year involves a 22-year-old woman who was an innocent bystander when an argument broke out between two men.

Police quoted one of the men as saying he had opened a car door to release a small dog whose head was caught in a partially opened window. The dog appeared to be choking, the man said.

Police said another man ordered the would-be rescuer away from the car, and an argument ensued, during which the car owner allegedly drew a pistol and fired several shots. Mrs. Nettie Green of Detroit was killed.

Scientists say there are more than two million carbon compounds, or about 1½ times the number formed by all other elements combined.

Stocks Decline, Trading Active

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market fell in early trading today as Wall Street followed predictions in its reaction to the Soviet Block invasion of Czechoslovakia. Trading was active. Losses outnumbered gains by more than 3 to 1 on the New York Stock Exchange. The Dow Jones Industrial Average dropped 3.29 to 885.38 in the first half hour.

Trading was heavy, but not more than usually after a Wednesday market closing when market orders pile up. Some of the defense stocks and issues involved in the ballistic missile defense program showed strength.

Gains of around a point or better were shown by General Dynamics, United Aircraft, Raytheon, and McDonnell Douglas. Homestake, the biggest U.S. gold producer, advanced about 3.

Certain-Teed fell about 2 points. Losses exceeding a point were taken by Texas Gulf Sulphur, Sunoco, First Charter Financial, Westinghouse Electric and Johns-Manville.

An initial selloff was predicted Wednesday by stock market analysts, but some held hope for a recovery as prices of some of the more favored issues reached "bargain" levels.

Former Students Of Bay College Win Scholarships

President Dr. Richard L. Rinehart today named former Bay de Noc Community College students who have received scholarships to continue their college education at several universities.

Students attending Western Michigan University on scholarship are Patricia Baribeau, Escanaba, sophomore; Pamela Malinowski, Escanaba, associate of arts; Dennis Loren Flath, Escanaba, associate of arts; James R. Nelson, Escanaba, associate of science; and Ned F. Vanders, Gladstone, associate of arts.

Attending Central Michigan University on scholarship are Suzanne M. Gannon, Escanaba, associate of applied science; Joe Mileski, Escanaba, sophomore; and Thomas M. Milkovich, Escanaba, associate of applied science.

Marilyn Kay Osterberg, of Gladstone, associate of arts, has been awarded a scholarship to Northern Michigan University and Joel W. Gerdeen, Escanaba, associate of science, has a scholarship to Michigan Technological University.

Gary Lee Olson, Cornell, associate of science, has a scholarship to the University of Michigan.

Scholarships were awarded upon the basis of academic performance while attending Bay de Noc Community College and are indicative of the high degree of excellence maintained in college studies.

Newsman Wins Top Ag Award

LANSING (AP) — Barry Brand of Sparta today was named winner of Michigan's Agricultural Development of the year award for the educational service he provides fruit and vegetable farmers by publishing two monthly newspapers.

Brand's award will be presented officially Tuesday at the Michigan State Fair, Detroit.

The publications, Great Lakes Fruit Growers News and the Great Lakes Vegetable Growers News, represented the Grand Rapids Region (Region 8) and were selected over 10 other regional development entries.

This marks the second year in succession that Region entries have won the state award. The 1967 winner was Harvey Harvester Co. of Grand Haven for its blueberry picking machine.

Foresters Attend Maple Conference

Wesley Lehman and Michael Zuidema of Escanaba, took part in a Sugar Maple Conference this week at the Michigan Technological University, Houghton, representing the Michigan Conservation Department from this area.

This session was the first to be held, worldwide, concerning all aspects of management, protection, and harvest techniques for this important northeastern forest tree. The persons attending the conference were the nation's foremost experts on sugar maple.

The Sault's Year

Upper Peninsulans usually turn southward when they travel because their strong orientation is in that direction. Northward is Lake Superior and wooded Canada.

But this is the summer when Upper Peninsulans should feel a strong pull to the east. To Sault Ste. Marie, to be specific.

The Sault is celebrating its Tricentennial and welcoming visitors to the oldest settlement in Michigan and in the Midwest. It was an outpost of France when there was only a sprinkling of settlement along the Atlantic Coast of America. Before white men topped the Alleghenies and looked down upon the broad valley of the Ohio in their westward drive, there was a log settlement at Sault Ste. Marie, where the outpouring from mighty Lake Superior rushes down over the rapids of the St. Mary's River.

In the War of 1812 an expedition which couldn't defeat the British holding the fort on the hill on Mackinac Island sailed on to the Sault and burned some warehouses there to retaliate on British businessmen who weren't as invulnerable as British soldiers in the Upper Peninsula.

The place drips with history. Three hundred years of it and even more, because Etienne Brule was there long before Father Marquette.

And you get the strong feeling of it in a visit to the Sault at any time. The feeling will grow with the Sault's fine restorations and signing of historic sites, like the seignory of Repetigny. It was a part of Upper Canada when Canada was New France.

This was the first settlement on the water line of travel which opened the heartland of America to white settlement from Europe, by way of the St. Lawrence, Ottawa and French rivers and the North Channel of Lake Huron. (The earliest penetration of the continent was by this route because of the belligerence of the Iroquois in what's now New York State.)

The fight for empire had a bastion here, with a short British reign after a long French one and the border was still so unsettled even after American accession that Fort Brady was created to secure the frontier and keep the Indians off the warpath.

Now Fort Brady is a college campus, one of the most unique in America and one of the most stimulating. They're teaching math in the old mule barn of the post and the officers' quarters are housing offices and there's make-do all over the place and a great spirit of get-ahead.

When you top the low eminence to the west of the Sault now and look down to the St. Mary's and Sugar Island and Canada beyond, there's a great new pylon on the skyline in the Sault. It is the tower of the Missionaries, erected by the Catholic Church and due to be formally opened on Sept. 20 next to Old St. Mary's Church, which served the late Bishop Frederic Baraga, "The Apostle of the Chippewa," whose cause for canonization is now being processed.

The Sault has been severely hurt by expiration of industries, the tannery, the Cadillac Soo Lumber Co., Soo Woolen Mills, Union Carbide Co., and others. It is now, by a very hurtful stroke of military planning, losing Kincheloe Air Force Base nearby, a major bolster of the Sault's economy.

These reverses have created a great problem of economic growth in the Sault. It is almost as though Job and his boils are having an unrelenting municipal counterpart in the Sault. But there's nothing like adversity to bring out the best in people and the Sault has been able to generate an inspiring spirit of municipal effort for growth.

If you're out to see the world this summer, see the Sault, as one of our very best examples of the unquenchable human spirit.

All history is a bonus and the biggest show in the Upper Peninsula — the ship canal passage of the world's greatest marine traffic — is free!

The reason they paint cabooses in such bright colors is so the engineer can tell when he has backed up far enough to block the crossing.

Some brothers and sisters a few years apart get along quite well, but most of them behave normally.

Prisoners Make Model Students

JACKSON (AP) — By day, they are model students at Jackson Community College. By night, they are model prisoners at Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson.

Since February 1, seven prisoners, serving sentences on charges ranging from writing bad checks to second-degree murder, have been participating in Southern Michigan Prison's study-pass program.

The study-pass program was initiated last winter after a successful experience with a similar work-pass program, in which specially screened prisoners were allowed to work unguarded in outside jobs during the day.

Program Praised
Both the student-prisoners and their instructors gave the program high marks.

"I've been very happy with the situation at Jackson Community College," one said. "All my experiences there have been happy ones. The instructors have been very nice and have not showed favoritism of any kind, or any animosity towards me either."

English instructor Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, who teaches a course created primarily for students who have been out of school for some time, said of her three inmate-students:

"They're the best students in class and among the best I've ever had. All of us feel this is public education. We're here to serve all students who can qualify. A student's private and personal life outside the classroom is his own.

Not Identified
"I can think of only one person in class who knows where the three students come from."

Robert Lock, a political science instructor, also is happy with the program. "My over-all reaction is quite favorable," he said. "In fact, one of them is the best student in his class. He has taught government classes in prison, so he is up on the subject. This particular student joined the class a week late—and finished No. 1 in three tests given during the semester."

College officials said all seven participants in the study-pass program did better than average work in the school's second semester, which ended in June. All of them enrolled for the summer term.

Five of them are taking full academic loads, with business course favored over liberal arts subjects. Two of the prisoner-students are taking vocational programs.

Not Easy Going
The prisoners, however, don't find their new found freedom an unmixed blessing.

"I want to let it be known that being in a program like this—in spite of all in its favor—has been and will continue to be an extremely trying situation," one said. "I have been locked up now for more than six years, and these past four months have been among the most miserable."

"One feels like a puppy left out on a very long leash to sniff around, constantly watched and snatched away from things he feels he ought to have and do."

"It isn't really easy going down there every day and having to return there every night. The emotional strain is quite noticeable among the inmates attending college."

But the disadvantages of the program have not changed the prisoner's mind about its overall value. "Our uppermost objective is to get as much education as possible and, most of all, to make a parole and live like ordinary people," he said.

Mortgages Down In Month Of July
WASHINGTON (AP) — Insured savings and loan associations handled $1.8 billion in new mortgages in July, bringing 1968 volume to $12.2 billion, 23 per cent above the corresponding period of 1967.

The July total reported by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board was down from June's $1.9 billion, a less-than-seasonal sag.

The insured S&Ls had a net withdrawal of savings of $580 million during the month, the board reported. Dividends and new savings totaling $5.3 billion were outweighed by $5.9 billion in withdrawals.

Gary Plant Sets Steel Record
GARY, Ind. (AP)—U.S. Steel Corp. said that it has produced its 250 millionth ton of steel at the Gary Steel Works.

The company said it believed this was a world record for a plant.

Production at the plant began in 1909. The 150 million ton mark was reached in 1953 and the 200 million ton mark in 1961.

PARKS

Our own Pioneer Trail Park is a fine example of a small part of nature set aside for all people to enjoy. Nor is it primeval. The original growth was harvested before the railroad came to Escanaba.

The U.P. now has at least 100,000 acres of virgin timberland that no one seems to know exactly what to do with. Even George Romney walked the trail through the Porcupine Mountains State Park and said: "Nope, no road folks."

Had Connor been allowed to harvest the Porcupines, the area would now be elegant second growth, with roads all through it.

The Redwood National Park seems to have been set at 28,000 acres instead of 64,000. This is ample. Let the rest be multiple use for all the people.

It has been said there should be no sentiment in any business, and timber harvesting is a business, or industry. It is bread and butter for many people.

Now almost of the past, the old time timber cruiser often felt sad in seeing a beautiful forest become slash. My own father, a forester of the old school, often mentioned this.

A leading educator at the University of Washington advocates harvesting all but a few blocks of the Olympic National Park and letting nature take over the remainder. This man is a wise one.

However, I do not agree with those who say our original forests were a tangle of unmanaged brush. Unknown to many, some beautiful white and Norway pine was cut near Nahma Junction in 1950. The Bay de Noquet Co., had saved it for the last roundup.

Anyone who draws trumps automatically will be burdened by misfortune on many occasions. Not that this column is opposed to drawing trumps. They should be drawn when, and if, you can afford to do so.

South ruffed the club opening and led a trump to dummy's ace. When both opponents followed, South relaxed happily. All he had to do was to pull the rest of the trumps and concede two spade tricks to the defense!

He pulled the rest of the trumps. West let the three of spades and deuce of clubs go. South started to claim but decided it would be easier just to play the hand out. He led a low spade toward dummy.

West hadn't relaxed at all. He had figured out the whole hand by a process of elimination and simply played a low spade.

Dummy's king won the trick and the jack was played next. West let that hold also and South's period of relaxation was over.

He might just as well have stayed relaxed since he was not going to make his contract. Dummy's king of clubs would take care of one of his four spades but South was going to have to lose the other three. Eventually the last one would be high but South would have no way to get back to his hand to collect a trick with it.

South really had no excuse. He would have been sure of his contract if he had abandoned the trump suit after the second lead and gone after spades.

There would be all sorts of lines of play left for the defense and we will leave them to you to work out. All sorts of lines of play—but with one thing in common. Not one would beat the contract.

Patient Should Be Told Test Results

Dear Ann Landers: I wish to comment on the letter from "Starvation Diet" — the man whose sex life was terrible. He blamed her and she blamed him.

For ten years my husband and I had the same problem. It was neither frigidity on my part nor clumsiness on his part. It was simply that his attitude toward sex was primitive and mechanical and I felt I was being used to satisfy his animal passions. It took two years of counseling to set us straight.

Sex is the highest form of communicating love between woman and man. It should be an act of giving, for both parties. A woman must feel that she is an object of love and not just a convenient escape valve for releasing sexual impulses.

I urge Mr. Starvation Diet to take some quiet walks and examine his deepest motives. I am willing to bet that if he changes his attitude and approaches his wife with unselfish love and takes the time to be gentle and considerate he will find himself graciously received — not rejected. A good sexual relationship can make a marriage heaven. A poor one can make it hell. — ONE WHO HAS KNOWN BOTH

Dear One: Amen.

Dear Ann Landers: I recently went to a doctor who ordered me to take some laboratory tests. I was told I'd be notified of the results. One week passed and I heard nothing so I called and asked about the tests. I was informed that they were "in the mail."

Five days elapsed and nothing arrived so I called again. I was told, "The post office must have lost them."

I am now mad at the doctor because I think he lied to me. I want to change doctors and I have asked for my medical records. I was told, "It is not ethical for a doctor to give a patient medical records."

I discussed this with a friend who is well-versed in medical ethics. He said, "The doctor is right."

Do you think it is fair that I should have to take all those lab tests over just because the doctor doesn't want to give me my medical records? Any why is it unethical for a doctor to give them to me? Please explain — MAD AT CROAKERS

Dear Mad: It is indeed unethical for a doctor to give a patient his medical records. The reason is obvious. For example, if the physician should recommend the "surgical excision of multiple lipomata" it might frighten the patient to death. Another physician would know that this procedure is no big deal.

Your doctor should, however, furnish you with a report of your lab tests. You have a right to know how the tests turned out. If they were lost in the mail the doctor has an obligation to replace them.

Cook Quits As Wabash President

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Dr. Paul W. Cook Jr. has resigned what he called the "exhausting, demanding job" as president of Wabash College at Crawfordsville, Ind.

The board of trustees, meeting at Indianapolis Monday, named Francis W. (Frank) Misch of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., as acting president when Cook's resignation becomes effective Sept. 1.

Misch retired two years ago as vice president of finance for Chrysler Corp. He is a 1925 graduate of the private college and is a trustee.

Cook, Wabash president two years, said he would become a consultant to the president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Barbara L. Warner, John B. Kleiman Wed

Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Bay City was the setting Saturday, Aug. 3 for the double ring ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Barbara Louise Warner of Bay City and John Bernard Kleiman of Escanaba.

The Rev. Leonard J. Susalla heard the solemn exchange of vows at 12 noon. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Warner of S. Willow Drive, Bay City and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Kleiman, 614 S. 20th St.

White Linen
The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose an imported white linen gown fashioned with a wedding ring neckline. Lace trim accented the sleeves, molded Empire bodice and A-line skirt with alternating bands of pointed d' venise lace gracing the hemline and detachable court train.

A matching Dior bow bandeau held her English illusion veil and she carried an arrangement of white rhubrum lilies centered with pink and white stephanotis blossoms in a cascade motif.

Miss Rebecca Lynn Warner of Bay City served as honor maid for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Westmoreland and Miss Linda Wenz of Bay City.

Dotted Swiss
They were gowning in pink dotted swiss floor length demitied frocks styled with short French puffed sleeves, square necklines and sashed Empire bodices. Matching French veils completed their attire and they

Mrs. John B. Kleiman carried rhubrum lilies and carnations.

Serving as best man was Richard Bond of Lansing and groomsmen were Brent Kleiman of Escanaba and Bruce and Robert Warner, brothers of the bride.

The wedding reception and luncheon was held at the Holiday Inn in Bay City after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip to the Eastern States. Upon their return they will reside in Ann Arbor, where they are both seniors at the University of Michigan.

ARGENTINE BARBECUE
The traditional way to eat an asado, or barbecue, in Argentina—perhaps dating back to the days when china and cutlery were scarce—is to hold the meat in the teeth and cut a portion away.

Women's Activities

Mrs. F. Krantz Guest Speaker At B&PW Club

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Escanaba held their August supper meeting at the Escanaba Country Club Monday evening.

Mrs. Lorraine Heller, program chairman for the evening, presented the speaker, Mrs. Frances Krantz, who gave an informal talk on a trip she took this summer to London and Edinburgh.

Mrs. Krantz said that when planning a trip there are two alternatives: taking a planned tour, or finding a most congenial companion to travel with. She reported that she was most fortunate to have Mrs. Norman Lindquist as a travel mate, since they share so many interests.

When in a city like London, one can take guided tours in which you are taken to all places of interest, and Mrs. Lindquist and Mrs. Krantz took four of these. They found, though, that good guides are hard to find, and they were very disappointed in the lack of knowledge of some of the guides.

What they enjoyed most were unguided tours, where with travel book in hand, they wandered at their own will. One can take many of these walking tours within a close radius to the hotel where he is staying.

On one of these walking tours they visited Kensington Gardens and found a hippy gathering there. Some eight to ten thousand people were at this gathering, wearing the "in" fur coats, some ankle length and very moth-eaten.

She noted that the English papers, being very conservative, did not give the report of this gathering in sharp contrast to the coverage a United States paper would give such a gathering.

They traveled by London subway, or tube, and found it an easy way to get around, since every car has a big map on one side, showing all stations and transfer points. Mrs. Krantz said they rented a car for some of their sight-seeing and found the left-side-of-the-road driving very confusing. They also found that a mere 40-mile journey could be an all-day undertaking with a stop-over for the night.

Mrs. Krantz found St. Albans, a suburb of London, particularly fascinating. It is built on the ruins of a Roman city and the ruins show that the Romans had central heating as early as 100 A.D. At St. Albans they stayed at a small guest house, where they felt they were living with a typical English couple.

They also visited a luxury resort in the lake district in Scotland, which Mrs. Krantz says is the most beautiful place she has ever seen.

Mrs. Krantz and Mrs. Lindquist are especially interested in the theatre. There are 40 theatres in London and in the

Susan Walmsley Bride Of Patrick G. Feneley

Before the altar of the First Presbyterian Church at Newberry, Mich., Susan Ann Walmsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Walmsley of Engadine, and Patrick G. Feneley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Feneley of Engadine, were united in marriage.

The afternoon ceremony was performed Saturday, Aug. 17, by the Rev. Timothy F. Jones. Soloist was Mrs. Howard Wiley of Farmington, aunt of the bride, and she was accompanied at the organ by Jane Fuller of Newberry.

Fingertip Veil
The bridal gown was fashioned of peau d' ange lace and organza with a shallow scoop lace neckline, bell sleeves, empire waistline, an A skirt and frosted with re-embroidered Alencon lace adorned with seed pearls. The gown had a detachable three weeks they were in London, they went to 10 plays, two movies, and a concert. The plays ranged from light comedy to a Shakespearean production, and some were outstanding in stage presentation and roles played.

Mrs. Krantz said she and Mrs. Lindquist are now planning for their next trip in order to see more of the London theatre.

Watteau train, also trimmed and bordered with lace.

A headpiece of miniature petals, trimmed with tiny seed pearls and teardrop crystals secured her silk illusion fingertip veil and she carried a cascade arrangement of pink sweetheart rosebuds and trailing ivy.

Miss Susan Verplanck of Edmore was the maid of honor and Miss Janet E. Vanderstar of Naubinway and Peggy V. Feneley, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids.

The attendants were identically attired in floor-length apricot chiffon over linen gowns with high round collars and tiny buttons. The gowns had a court train of satin which were attached at the shoulders and their picture hats were of matching apricot organza. Each attendant carried a single long-stemmed white rose.

Kenneth H. Feneley of Clare was his brother's best man and groomsmen were Clifford D. Walmsley of Engadine, brother of the bride, and Ross D. Feneley of Dublin, Calif., brother of the groom. Ushering was Ted Kisabeth of Walled Lake, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Walmsley chose a mint green lace gown with matching accessories and wore a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. Mrs. Feneley chose a pale blue sheath gown and matching mantilla with black and white accessories and was presented a corsage of red sweetheart roses.

Garden Reception
The afternoon garden reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at Millecoquins Lake. Assisting at the reception were: Mrs. Ted Kisabeth of Walled Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mock of Fremont, Mr. and Mrs. Mynor W. Seaman, Jr., Mrs. Alvin Shaw and Mrs. Sterling Nesbitt of DeTour, Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow A. Seaman of Lyons, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wiley of Farmington, Deborah and Denise Seaman of Lyons and Mrs. Peter LeGault of Union Pier, Marion Haranda of Pinconning, Karen Lindermann of Saline and Mrs. Frank Ditttrick of Auburn.

Home In Gould City
After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, traveling by way of Canada and returning through Michigan, the couple will be at home after Aug. 31 at Gould City.

For her wedding trip the bride chose a two-piece dress and coat ensemble in checked blue and white and wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

The bride attended Northwood Institute at Midland, Mich. and the bridegroom is a graduate of Central Michigan University where he received his bachelor of science degree. He has been teaching at the Engadine High School and will continue in this field.

WOMEN PILOTS
There are only 23,659 active women pilots in the United States, according to FAA figures. As of Jan. 1, 1968, 13,173 women were rated as student pilots, 3,775 as private pilots, 1,479 as commercial pilots, 57 as airline transport pilots and 175 with other (glider, lighter-than-air, rotorcraft) ratings.

Reform Leader Held In Custody

Meanwhile an American Embassy motor convoy taking U.S. citizens out of the country cleared a checkpoint outside Prague and was on its way to the West German border crossing point at Rozvadov.

Embassy officials said a Czechoslovak motorcycle policeman was escorting the convoy of about 20 embassy and private cars.

Dozens of British, Dutch and West German cars joined the American convoy.

Among the Americans was actress Shirley Temple Black, who left the tourist-flooded Alcron Hotel clutching a bouquet of red roses given her by a weeping chamber maid.

"Russ Go Home"

Czechoslovakia's chief of state and Parliament insisted that the Russians and their allies—Poles, East Germans, Hungarians and Bulgarians—free captive liberal leaders and go home, leaving the nation to pursue its freer brand of communism.

"There is no way back from freedom and democracy for Czechoslovakia," Svoboda said in an address over the clandestine radio station.

"The situation must be solved rapidly and the troops must leave," the 72-year-old president said, adding that he hoped a solution could be reached today.

Even as he spoke, a quarter-hour firefight against the occupation troops broke out in Prague. Hundreds of casualties already had been reported in scattered cases of resistance.

The occupation forces imposed a midnight-5 a.m. curfew and announced they would shoot without questions at anyone who appeared on the streets.

The Parliament adopted its defiant stance at an emergency meeting Wednesday.

A broadcast by Prague Radio, operating from a secret location, said occupation forces seized Czechoslovak Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek and three other liberal leaders and sped them off to an unknown destination.

In Moscow, Pravda denounced Dubcek as the leader of a "treacherous betrayal" of Communist ideals. The Soviet Communist party organ said he led a minority faction in the Czechoslovak Communist party that supported counter-revolution. It was the first Soviet public personal attack on Dubcek since the Russians began denouncing Czechoslovak liberalism.

The troops that made a lightning thrust into Czechoslovakia Tuesday night to wipe out such liberal reforms as freedom of the press still had not set up a new government today to return the country to the hard line approved by the Kremlin for Communist nations.

Soldiers Killed

At least 23 persons, including some Soviet bloc soldiers, were reported killed in incidents since the invasion began late Tuesday night.

Broadcasts said seven persons were killed in fighting around the Prague Radio offices, six in Liberec 55 miles northeast of Prague and 10 in the east Slovak town of Kosice.

Reports from Kosice said some Soviet soldiers were killed by a Molotov cocktail thrown in their tank, and that Russian troops fired on a crowd, killing a youth, 17, and wounding about 20 persons.

The Czechoslovak news agency CTK, before reporting it had been put out of business at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday, said about 180 persons were wounded in Prague.

Angry thousands of Czechoslovaks marched in Prague behind a World War II jeep filled with young people carrying a black flag. On the hood sat a teenager with a Czechoslovak flag covered with blood.

Little Settlement In Basin Keeps Lake Superior Pure

By JEAN WORTH

HOUGHTON — The Upper Peninsula didn't have any railroad passenger service until the 1870s, Dr. Carl A. Moyer, professor of biological science at Michigan Tech, told the Sugar Maple Conference banquet here Tuesday, "and now we have none again!"

Dr. Moyer, former head of the surgery department at Washington University's medical school in St. Louis, is now building a clinic at Keweenaw Bay, and stimulating thought in the Baraga area with his strong personal impressions.

He addressed a distinguished gathering of foresters from throughout the nation on Lake Superior and suggested, among other things, that it is so precious as the world's largest body of fresh water that it may become advisable to restrict settlement about it to prevent its pollution.

It has remained remarkably free of pollution so far, he said, because it is low in nutrients.

Few People

The influence of the great lake upon people and the lack of people around it were remarked by Dr. Moyer.

The south shore of the lake gets 100 inches of snow a month in snow time, he said, and has received as much as 114 inches in one month.

"The lake has a twelfth of all the fresh water on the surface of the planet," said Dr. Moyer "and as much water as all the other Great Lakes put together. Every year since 1870 it has had winds in excess of 50 mph for over 6 hours and sustained winds up to 90 mph. It gets storms from all the U.S. systems except the east coast out of Canada. Its deepest bottom is 776 feet below sea level and half of the lake is over 800 feet deep.

Young Lake

"It is a 'young' lake, not over 2,500 years old and formed in a time when there was only sub-Arctic brush in the area after retreat of the glacier and there was still ice in the lake.

"The shore exemplifies what man can do with a country. In 1890-99 the lake trout catch in the lake was 2.6 million pounds a year. With 18-mile gangs of nylon nets in the lake the catch dropped to 62,000 pounds. The lamprey didn't do it.

"The lake has only a small quantity of nutrients and is almost distilled water yet, with only 60 parts per million of solids — that's a quarter-teaspoon of solids in an oil barrel of water. You can see the bottom in 40 feet of water and drink it anywhere. The colliquids are not above allowable limits, so it is relatively unpolluted.

Could Serve Millions

"It has capacity to provide all the industrial usage needs for a human population of 22 million with more than 10 billion gallons of flowage left over. Forty million persons could be served by Superior and leave enough water to operate the Sault canal.

"By diversion of water from the Canadian shield in Indian lands up the existing total inflow could be increased by half.

"When my grandfather came here from Chicago he went to Escanaba by boat and then took the railroad to its end at Three Lakes. Now we have no rail passenger service again. The bus ride is 22 hours from Chicago. There is no air service east-west in the Upper Peninsula unless you go by way of Green Bay, and Pellston, a 700 mile trip to go 200 miles. There are no steamships any more. We are as isolated today as in the days of the pioneers and you'll be hearing less of us as time passes.

Small Basin

"The Lake Superior drainage basin is not large, only about the same size as the lake and most of it is in Canada. Fortunately there are not many people in it to spoil the lake.

"The lake is poor in wildlife and can't support a population large enough to wreck it. Its biggest metropolis is Duluth.

"The dead don't come up in Superior. Even the fish don't come up. The water temperature 30 feet down is 37 to 38 degrees all the time. That's way

St. Ignace Youth Escapes, Caught

BRIDGEPORT (AP) — State Police troopers said they arrested two teen-agers who escaped from a prison camp near Pontiac, at an I 75 rest area south of Bridgeport today.

The youths were identified as Ronald Walter Dubois, 18, of Onaway, and Joseph Willard Lavake, 19, of St. Ignace. They were to be turned over to authorities from Camp Pontiac.

An abandoned car, which was believed stolen, led troopers to search the I 75 area. Police said the youths attempted to run, but were caught.

Three police dogs were used in the search.

More Fish, More Caught

Coho Fishing Improves

The bright greens of summer are fading toward the off colors of the pre-fall season, weather is warm, insects are on the wane and fishing is picking up, the Conservation Dept. reports.

Coho salmon fishing at Thompson Bay has improved each day with more and more fish coming in and being taken.

Most fish are being caught by fishermen wading from shore. No fish are taken by trolling, although fishermen have been taking to boats to get room to fish.

The salmon vary in size from five to 10 pounds.

Bright artificial lures and spawn bags, plus combinations of both are catching fish, officers report. Best fishing has been between 4 and 9:30 a.m.

Some "jack" salmon were noted this weekend.

An estimated 300 to 400 fishermen have been gathered at the mouth of Thompson Creek every day. Fishing is poor when waves are high.

Besides the coho, several rainbow trout in the eight pound class have been taken every day.

Only an occasional coho is being caught by sport trollers off Grand Marais.

Rainbow: An occasional large fish is taken by trolling off Grand Marais, Alger County and off Thompson Creek in Schoolcraft County. Inland lakes producing rainbows are Clear, Bear, Dodge Island and Dutch Fred in Schoolcraft County.

Brown trout: Fair catches reported taken between the Upper and Lower Falls in the Tahquamenon River and in Teaspoon Creek, Luce County and Indian River near Steuben, Schoolcraft County.

Northern pike: In Mackinac County, Brevort and East and Milakokia lakes and area around Green Island (Lake Michigan) are good; In Schoolcraft County best reports come from the Manistique River; Gulliver and McDonald lakes are fair.

Yellow perch: In Mackinac County good catches in Erevort, Milakokia and Big Manistique lakes; in Schoolcraft County good catches are reported from Indian, McDonald and Gulliver lakes.

Bonifas Names Athletic Staff

Richard Bonifas, athletic director of Manistique High School, has announced the athletic staff for the 1968-69 season.

John LaPointe will serve as head football coach with C. Richard Larson and Seb Ruck as assistant varsity coaches; Stan Arnold will be team trainer; Rudie Brandstrom, reserve coach; and Howard Schwartz and John Stapleton assistant reserve coaches.

Rudie Brandstrom will continue as varsity basketball and track coach with Howard Schwartz reserve basketball coach and C. Richard Larson assistant track coach.

Mrs. Helen Mickelson will be girl's track coach; Curt Vandenberg, junior high coach; and Arvid Larson will be in charge of golf.

Edison Sault Promotes Two

Richard Y. Burnett, president of Edison Sault Electric Co., today announced staff changes in the electric utilities organization.

John D. Graham becomes safety supervisor responsible directly to Vice President-Operations Russell C. King. John H. DeWeese takes over the position of promotional sales supervisor.

Burnett stated these changes were to insure the continued high level of service to the customers in the power company's area.

Graham has been with Edison Sault Electric since 1953, working in the meter department and later in the engineering department. Graham will continue as the Right-of-Way Agent for the company.

A native of Sault Ste. Marie, Graham graduated from Sault High School and attended Lake Superior State College for two years. He has been active in community affairs and served seven years on the Soo Township Board of Education. Married to the former Constance Barrett, the Grahams have three daughters and a son.

DeWeese started with Edison Sault Electric in 1957 as storekeeper and moved into a combination position of safety and sales in 1964. As promotional sales supervisor, DeWeese will work with the marketing Dept. headed by Stewart T. Moran.

A native of Sault Ste. Marie, DeWeese attended school in Brimley, served in the U. S. Army and was employed in selling in the Sault area prior to joining the Edison Sault.

A former president of the Toastmaster's Club, DeWeese has been active with the United Fund, Boy Scouts of America, Red Cross and the Michigan Heart Association. Married to the former Carol Kenz, the DeWeeses have two sons.

State Fair Opens Friday

DETROIT (AP) — The 119th annual Michigan State Fair officially opens at 8 a.m. Friday with a ribbon cutting ceremony and remarks from Governor George Romney.

Two hours later, the Fair's Grand Opening Parade will move south on Woodward Ave. past a reviewing stand downtown. Drum majorettes; several drum and bugle corps; Army, Navy and Marine Corps units; police and firemen; high school bands; and others will take part.

The Fair, which will continue through Labor Day, has been held in Detroit continuously since 1905. The first State Fair in 1849 was in Detroit, however, after that it was held in various cities including Ann Arbor, Kalamazoo, Adrian, Jackson, Saginaw, Grand Rapids, Lansing and Pontiac.

Chrysler Plans To Build City

ATLANTA (AP) — Chrysler Corp. announced plans Wednesday for a $100-million community to be built on a 1,700-acre site in Troy.

The Troy project is on land which the firm bought 11 years ago for plant expansion but instead it will become a community for 20-30,000 people said Ed Homer, president of Chrysler Realty Corp.

Chrysler announced earlier this month it had bought a 764-acre estate in Bloomfield and West Bloomfield for another residential subdivision.

Homer said he was working with Troy city officials and hoped to start construction in October on the first unit, a 90,000-square-foot, two-story office complex which will be the home of Chrysler Realty.

"We don't intend to build any homes but will work with selective developers after we do the master planning," Homer said.

Minoru Yamasaki, internationally known Japanese architect and planner, laid out the master plan for the Troy area which includes a 40-50 acre man-made lake along with several parks and possibly a golf course. The new Troy project will include homes, apartments and retail stores but there are no plans for any industry.

Ferency Boomed For MSU Board

EAST LANSING (AP) — A group of Michigan State University faculty Democrats has urged former Democratic State Chairman Zolton Ferency to run this year for a seat on the MSU Board of Trustees.

The MSU Democratic Academic Resources Committee also endorsed the candidacy for the board of East Lansing dentist Blanche Martin, a former MSU football player.

Not mentioned by the committee was Democratic incumbent C. Allen Harlan, who has said he will seek re-election unless Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley rules he has a conflict of interest.

Kelley has said he will rule on Harlan before the Aug. 30-31 state Democratic convention at which trustee candidates will be nominated.

"I understand there is a movement afoot within the Democratic Party to deny him (Harlan) renomination should he seek it," Ferency said today.

Ferency, who resigned as party chairman under fire and has since become a supporter of Sen. Eugene McCarthy and an outspoken critic of the national Democratic administration, added he would not decide until after next week's national party convention whether to run for the board.

"It might be incongruous to have me on the Democratic ticket this fall," he said, indicating he might not wish to be a candidate.

"It may also be tough getting me nominated in the Democratic convention," Ferency said. "I'm not at all sure they'd be ecstatic about nominating me."

Secretary Smith Quits In January

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Secretary of Commerce C. R. Smith announced he will leave the cabinet next January no matter who is elected president.

The former president and board chairman of American Airlines did not elaborate except to say he did not have any future plans.

Smith also told newsmen that he expected the nation's economy to "undergo some leveling out" in the next 12 months. "It's good for the country in that it will take the edge off the inflationary spiral," he said.

Japan Exporting More Automobiles

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's automobile exports in the first half of this year totaled 282,348 units, up from 184,162 units exported during the same period a year earlier, the Japan Automobile Manufacturers Association said Tuesday.

The association said exports of passenger cars during the period totaled 190,895 units, up 63.2 per cent from the first six months of 1967. It said exports of trucks reached 89,453 units, up 36.8 per cent and buses 1,958 units, up 14 per cent.

ANNUAL WALK across "Mighty Mac," Michigan's longest bridge, will take place again this Labor Day. For the 11th year, the tramp of feet will drown out the swish of automobile tires on the huge four-lane structure stretching five miles across the Straits of Mackinac, connecting Mackinaw City and St. Ignace. Two lanes are closed to vehicles for the traditional walk, which is the only time of the year when the bridge is open to foot traffic.

Walkers Cross Big Mac Free

ST. IGNACE (AP) — A once-a-year event — a free crossing of the Straits of Mackinac Bridge — will be a Labor Day feature again this year.

The only gimmick is, you have to walk it.

More than 15,500 persons showed up for the 11th annual four and one-half mile walk across the Straits span last year.

Among them was Gov. George Romney, who is expected to make it again this year, his schedule permitting.

In 1966, Romney was clocked in 57 minutes. Last year, the governor completed the distance in 47 minutes.

Larry Rubin, executive secretary of the Bridge Authority, said the record is 34 minutes, set by Ron Laird, an Olympic Walker, now of California.

Those who are trying for speed and a record are asked to show up early at the St. Ignace Plaza entrance to the bridge.

The Michigan Amateur Athletic Union is sponsoring a walking contest starting at 7:10 a.m. A competition sponsored by the International Walkers Association will kick off at 7:40.

Walkers who want to make it a more leisurely stroll can start any time from 8 until 10:30 a.m.

All who finish will receive a certificate noting their time. There will be prizes for the youngest and oldest competitors.

In addition, buses will take competitors to the St. Ignace starting point until 10 a.m. Buses also will make a return trip for those who want to get back from Mackinaw City to St. Ignace.

Vehicle traffic will continue during the walk over two lanes of the bridge.

VFW Condemns Czech Invasion

DETROIT (AP) — The Veterans of Foreign Wars called for a resumption Wednesday of the bombing of all North Vietnam "if the enemy continues to infiltrate troops and weapons into South Vietnam."

The organization, which claims 1.5 million members, also called for the United States and its allies in South Vietnam to "take whatever action is necessary, including a blockade of North Vietnam, to conclude the war with victory."

The action came in unanimous approval of a resolution which also said that the invasion of Czechoslovakia shows that "Communism is still on the march today in Central Europe, as it was in the 1940s and 1950s, determined to destroy freedom."

"The Soviet Union, the power base of Communist aggression, has not mellowed, but rather is even more ruthless and vicious in pursuing its objectives of global Communist conquest and destruction of the United States," the resolution also asserted.

FOB Detroit

By Jerry Green

DETROIT — It's funny now to remember other years at this time and how we'd kid Jim Campbell. Jim would have lost a few more hairs to the struggle against baldness and he'd sort of cringe against our onslaught.

He's a conservative as a general manager, maybe even a reactionary. And we'd let him have it for standing pat too much with the Tigers, being afraid to go out and make that bold trade that perhaps could put them into pennant contention.

Jim Campbell is on his way to becoming baseball's executive of the year in one of those post season elections. Maybe now's the time to examine why because late August always used to be a lull period. The Tigers were out of the race and the September salary drive had yet to begin. It was time to kid Campbell, but this year it's a time to praise him.

After the Tigers' near miss of a year ago, it was obvious they needed a shortstop. Even Stan Pat Campbell was convinced — or maybe not convinced, but agreeable to going out and trying to trade for one.

He tried all right and the Tigers were close to acquiring Luis Aparicio from Baltimore. Real close and Aparicio, with that flawless glove and respectable bat, would have been perfect for the Tigers.

Campbell was negotiating on a deal that would have been ideal. It was a three-way affair with the Orioles and Yankees. The Tigers were to get their shortstop to fill their most prominent void. Their deepest area was starting pitching the way Earl Wilson, Mickey Lolich and Joe Sparma pitched last year. The Tigers would surrender an excess starter to get their shortstop.

Then suddenly the proposed transaction snagged because of a minor league outfielder. His name was Merv Rettenmund, he's from Flint and he was property of the Orioles.

"We want Rettenmund in the deal," said Lee MacPhail of the Yankees.

"We insist on keeping him," said Harry Dalton of the Orioles.

"We insist on getting him," answered MacPhail.

So the trade broke down and there was no deal. Campbell returned home from the winter meetings in Mexico City without the shortstop. Instead, the Tigers still owned the pitcher they didn't want, the pitcher they had offered in their vital quest for a shortstop.

And that is how come Denny McLain is still pitching for the Tigers.

On opening day this season the Tigers felt they had too many left-handed batters for pinchhitting. They needed a right-handed pinchhitter. So they offered one of their left handers, an outfielder. No other club was interested. So they leaked word that this left-handed hitting outfielder was available in just a plain sale. Still nobody was interested, nobody wanted to buy him. So the Tigers kept him, believing somebody in a few days would decide they needed a left-handed hitter and a deal could be made.

And that is how come Gates Brown is still pinchhitting for the Tigers.

There was need in the bullpen and Jack Aker was very available. Aker had battled with Charlie Finley, the quack who owns the A's.

"You can have him for Jim Northrup," said Finley to Campbell, who was aware a reliever of Aker's quality could mean a pennant in Detroit.

"We have to keep Northrup," responded Campbell after some reflection.

And that is how come Jim Northrup is still with the Tigers, hitting grand slam homers and leading them in runs batted in.

So apologies for past ribbing to Jim Campbell, baseball's genius of the year.

Iverson, Richer Notch Victories

Art Richer paced sportsman drivers and Bob Iverson led the modified drivers before a crowd of approximately 1,500 Wednesday night in Escanaba. The special benefit night of racing was sponsored by the Escanaba Jaycees with proceeds going towards the purchase of a kidney machine.

Richer, of Schaffer took all honors. He started the evening by winning the time trials for the eleventh time this year. Then in the third heat, one of the better races seen this year he just nosed out John Nelson of Escanaba. Richer, starting in the rear battled Nelson and Duke Gardiner for 11 laps, took the lead on the last lap and beat Nelson by a couple of feet. He then capped the evening by again edging Nelson and Gardiner in the 20 lap feature. He battled from the rear and took the lead on the third lap and was never headed.

Emil Chandler of Gwinn was also a double winner. He drove to easy wins in the semi-feature and the first heat, while Don Bugay had little opposition in capturing the second heat.

Bob Iverson of Hyde continued his drive to take over the number one modified position. Iverson, trailing number one ranked Jerry Richer by a small margin, narrowed the gap with two victories. In the second heat Iverson took the lead on the third lap and beat Richer to the finish line. Iverson again beat Richer to the finish line in the 20 lap feature.

A spinout on the corner caused a restart on the fifth lap and he moved out in front as the green flag went down and led all the way. With the double victory Iverson increased his lead in victories to thirty one for the season.

Ken Iverson of Escanaba took the lead from Dave Hosking on the seventh lap to capture the first heat. He also took a third in the feature.

Racing action continues this weekend. Friday night in Norway, two of the top rated Milwaukee area drivers will be on hand, Fuzzy Fassbender, and Wayne Erickson. Saturday night in Escanaba there will be a special "mystery race", involving the top four modified and sportsman cars. It will be the first race of its kind in this area.

Modified: First heat, 1. K. Iverson, 2. Don Benoit, 3. Dave Hosking. Second heat, 1. B. Iverson, 2. J. Richer, 3. Wes Becket, Soo, Canada. Feature, 1. B. Iverson, 2. J. Richer, 3. K. Iverson. Fastest Qualifier, J. Richer, 18.89.

Sportsman: First heat, 1. Chandler, 2. Bob Brier, 3. Joe Palequin. Second heat, 1. Don Bugay, 2. Pat Temple, 3. Willie Gasbarro. Third heat, 1. A. Richer, 2. Nelson, 3. Ron Paquette. Semi-feature, 1. Chandler, 2. Palequin, 3. Norbert Randall. Feature, 1. A. Richer, 2. Gardiner, 3. Nelson. Fastest qualifier, A. Richer, 22.21.

Hitters Have Field Day For 5 NL Winning Teams

By The Associated Press

The whiff turned into the wham and the basenaths looked like freeway. In the National League Wednesday it was the day of the hitter in this year of the pitcher.

Instead of swinging and missing as so often has been the case this year, the batters seemed to be hitting every ball thrown their way.

The five winning teams banged out 93 hits and scored 64 runs in six games. Even the losing clubs managed 50 hits.

The Chicago Cubs and San Francisco Giants started the barrage in the afternoon. The Cubs whipped Atlanta 5-4 and 13-5 and the Giants trounced the New York Mets 13-3.

Pittsburgh climaxed the assault at night with a 19-1 wallop of Cincinnati. In between, St. Louis topped Philadelphia 8-3 and Houston ripped Los Angeles 6-1.

Pittsburgh's 19 runs were high for the majors this season. So were the Pirates' 23 hits.

Matty Alou and Gene Alley both collected four hits and Manny Mota, Roberto Clemente and Bill Mazeroski three apiece for the Pirates.

Don Clendenen accounted for five Pittsburgh runs with a three-run homer and a double. Alley drove in three and Alou, Jose Pagan, Mota, Mazeroski and Clemente two each. Clemente hit solo homers his first two at-bats.

Billy Williams drove in two runs with a pair of singles in the Cubs' first-game victory and then sent home seven more in the nightcap with a two-run homer, a single, sacrifice fly and a double.

However, Ernie Banks was the big blaster for the Cubs in the opener. The 37-year-old veteran hit a bases-empty homer, his 24th, in the first inning, and, then with the Cubs trailing 4-2, climaxed a three-run seventh with a two-run blast.

In the second game, the Cubs, who had trailed 5-0, went ahead to stay, 7-5, on Williams' two-run single in the sixth.

Willie Mays highlighted a six-run San Francisco fifth inning with a two-run homer, his 16th of the season and 580th of his career, and Juan Marichal coasted to his 23rd victory of the season.

While the Giants were batting in the sixth, their dugout and that of the Mets and the tarpaulin were searched after New York police received two calls that a bomb had been planted. Nothing was found and play continued after a delay of about five minutes.

The crowd of 32,023 was not disturbed during the bomb search.

Phil Gagliano and Tim McCarver both singled in two runs in St. Louis' victory over Philadelphia. The Cardinals took a 4-3 lead in the fifth on run-scoring singles by Gagliano, Bob Tolan and Roger Maris.

Rusty Staub provided the big bat for Houston, whose 10 hits were the lowest total for any winning team. Staub singled home one of two runs in the third and then singled in a pair in the fifth.

The 25-year-old reserve catcher doesn't play much with all-star Bill Freehan in front of him. The Tigers acquired him two years ago from Pittsburgh. He was batting .180 before his second homer of the season.

"I hit the other one in Cleveland," said Price. "It put us ahead 3-1. But Jim Northrup hit two grand slams that day."

"I'm more nervous after I pinch hit than before," he said. "I'm seating like a maniac. I try not to be nervous when I go to the plate. You've got to be ready."

Jerry Lynch, who set National League records as a pinchhitter for Pittsburgh a few years ago, gave Price some advice about pinchhitting.

"Jerry always told me to go up there swinging," said Price. "I've pinchhit and tied up the game four or five times this year, but this was the greatest."

"I used to catch Wood at Columbus in 1966. He pitched eight shutouts. We were the best of friends."

"There's no doubt about it," added the stocky Pennsylvanian. "We can't lose now. Not for the people in Detroit. The fans are just great."

"I spoke at a dinner the other night. The people all crowded around and said they were behind us. An 80-year-old lady ... she said we couldn't lose."

A fine football player at Hershey, Pa., High School, Price turned down 25 college scholarship offers to play baseball. He spent seven years in the Pittsburgh farm system, an all-star four times.

"I'd rather play all the time, but Freehan ... he's just great," said Price. "You just keep plugging and wait for your chance."

Mayo Smith, the Detroit manager, said Price would catch the final game of the White Sox series today, with Freehan going to first base against left-hander Tommy John. Mickey Lolich will pitch for Detroit.

"How many games have we won now?" said Smith. "Eighty? I'd say if we won 20 of our last 37 we could win it."

Detroit's comeback ability—victories after being tied or behind after the seventh inning—was visible again Wednesday night.

Chicago had taken a 2-1 lead off Detroit starter Pat Dobson on Gerry McNertney's lead off homer in the fifth.

Highland Sets Club Tourney

The annual men's golf tournament will be held at the Highland Golf Club on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2. As usual, it will be 18-hole match play each day, with the club championship to be played on Labor Day afternoon.

Defending champion Gerry Harris will be on hand to defend his club crown. Harris stopped Jack Smith in last year's finals.

The low 16 handicap golfers will comprise the championship flight, with the eight losers in first round matches dropping into the first flight. All other flights will be eight man flights.

This year's play will feature the initial tournament on the new 18-hole course, and needless to say, it will prove to be extremely interesting, as there won't be too much time for practice rounds. However, extreme pressure from a heavy tournament entry makes the use of the new course mandatory. Club officials expect that play will be faster by as much as an hour to an hour and a half.

Tournament rounds will start on Saturday at 12:30, and on Sunday and Monday at 9 a. m. A shotgun start will be used each day so that all golfers will finish at approximately the same time.

Anyone interested in playing in the club tournament must sign up at the clubhouse no later than Wednesday, August 28th. All men of the club are invited to play, and those without a posted handicap may enter the tourney by presenting cards with at least three rounds of play before the last day for signing up.

LaFave's Dumps Teamsters-VFW
LaFave's Raiders got ready for tonight's opening round play in the U.P. Class C softball tournament by defeating the league-leading Teamsters-VFW in Escanaba Softball Association league play last night, 7-6.

Jim Boudreau got credit for the victory on the mound and John Lundre, the last of many Teamsters-VFW pitchers, took the loss.

Tigers Nip Chisox On Homer By Price

DETROIT (AP) — Jim Price walked to the plate in the 10th inning, trying not to be nervous. The score was tied 2-2.

"Why don't you get a haircut, kid?" a fan yelled from the stands.

"Just skip it," said Price. "I'm going to win this thing."

With two strikes on him, Price slammed one of Wilbur Wood's knuckleballs into the left field seats and the Detroit Tigers had beaten the Chicago White Sox 3-2.

It was Detroit's 25th victory in its last turn at bat, 21 by one-run margins: The triumph left the American League-leading Tigers seven games ahead of second-place Baltimore as the Orioles won over California 4-3 in 15 innings.

"Imagine a guy worried about a haircut at a time like that," said Price, dripping sweat in the jubilant Detroit dressing room. "I guess my hair looks longer with the batting helmet jammed on my head. My hair is a little long, but you've got to keep up with the times."

The 25-year-old reserve catcher doesn't play much with all-star Bill Freehan in front of him. The Tigers acquired him two years ago from Pittsburgh. He was batting .180 before his second homer of the season.

"I hit the other one in Cleveland," said Price. "It put us ahead 3-1. But Jim Northrup hit two grand slams that day."

Detroit's comeback ability—victories after being tied or behind after the seventh inning—was visible again Wednesday night.

Chicago had taken a 2-1 lead off Detroit starter Pat Dobson on Gerry McNertney's lead off homer in the fifth.

The White Sox scored in the first inning when Gates Brown lost Luis Aparicio's liner in the lights for a double. Sandy Alomar beat out an infield hit, Dobson hit Pete Ward with a pitch and Aparicio scored as Tom McCraw hit into a doubleplay.

Jim Northrup singled in the Tigers' fourth, stole second and scored on Freehan's single, tying it 1-1.

Mickey Stanley knotted the score with a two-out homer in the eighth off White Sox relief ace Bob Locker. Stanley's 10th homer was the first run off Locker in his last 30 innings of relief, covering 19 games.

"It was a sinker above the knees," said White Sox interim Manager Les Moss. "It was a pretty good pitch."

Downing Stymies Twin Hitters As Yanks Win

By The Associated Press

Al Downing hopes Minnesota's Mayo Clinic can do as much for his sleeping habits as Minnesota's Twins have done for his pitching groove.

The little New York lefthander, plagued by chronic arm trouble since spring training, stymied Minnesota hitters for 8 1-3 innings Wednesday night and earned only his second victory of the season as the Yankees edged the Twins 2-1.

Today Downing will re-enter the Mayo Clinic, where his pitching arm passed doctors' tests two days ago, for the examination of another problem—his mysterious inclination toward instant daytime slumber.

Downing has trouble sleeping at night but can doze off at the drop of a hat in midday. The Mayo specialists have diagnosed his condition as narcolepsy, a controllable ailment remotely akin to sleeping sickness. They suspect there may be some relation between his sleeping pattern and arm miseries.

"They are going to give me sleeping pills before I go to bed at night and pills to keep me awake during the day," said the 27-year-old fastballer, who won 14 games for the Yankees last year. "They'll keep me for a day to see how I react. I hope they find the answer."

Second - place Baltimore nipped California 4-3 in 15 innings and remained seven games off the pace and Cleveland trimmed Boston 8-2 for Horacio Pina's first major league victory in the only other games scheduled.

Downing, who spent one month on the disabled list and another in the minors trying to regain his pitching form, held the Twins hitless until the sixth and took a two-hit shutout into the ninth, when Bob Allison's 15th homer brought Lindy McDaniel out of the bullpen to nail down the victory.

The 8 1-3 inning's stint was the longest of the year for Downing, who went 6 1-3 last Friday night in beating Oakland 2-1.

Rocky Colavito's eighth-inning homer off Jim Kaat broke a scoreless deadlock and Rich Rollins' bases-loaded error in the top of the ninth gave New York the run that proved decisive.

While Yanks' Manager Ralph Houk was extremely pleased with Downing's effort, there was concern over the pitcher's sleeping dilemma. "He fell asleep five times while the doctors were examining him," Houk said. "He has trouble staying awake on the bench during a game if he isn't pitching. I sometimes wonder what I'd do if he fell asleep when he was out there on the mound."

Fortunately for Houk, the Twins didn't catch Downing napping until it was too late for them.

Boog Powell broke up the Orioles-Angels marathon with a run-scoring single in the 15th after Mark Belanger walked, stole second and took third on catcher Ed Kirkpatrick's wild throw. Frank Robinson and Don Buford homered for Baltimore, staking Dave McNally to a 3-0 lead, but the Angels tied it in the fifth on a twoout walk. Rick Reichardt's triple and Bubba Morton's double.

The Indians supported Pina, a 21-year-old righthander making his first start, with an eight-run uprising in the fifth that knocked out Boston's Jim Lonborg.

Pina gave up eight hits and struck out seven, but needed last-out relief help from Vicente Romo. Chico Salmon, Dave Nelson and Joe Azcue drove in two runs apiece in the fifth with a home run, triple and single, respectively.

Orange Crushers Keep League Lead

With the final week of the women's league at the Highland Golf Club coming up, the Orange Crushers hold a comfortable 7 1/2 point lead. The Crushers have held the top spot throughout the season, and although they have been frequently challenged, they kept in first place.

Following in second place are the White Angels, with the Blue Devils just a point and a half behind in third.

Vicky Beck and Elaine Fairchild set the pace for Wednesday night's play, as both fired 47's. Newly crowned club champion Elaine Nelson shot a 48, Carolyn Nelson a 49, and Dorothy Looden 50.

Golf ball winners were Vicky Beck, Barb Douglas, Lois Bitner, Chris Chaudoir, Carol Davidson, Betty Fassbender, Blanche Christie, Inez Wolfgram, Agnes Baribeau and Lavonna Motto.

Team standings are: Orange Crushers 66 1/2; White Angels 59, Blue Devils 57 1/2, Brown Indians, Green Hornets, and Red Raiders 55, Gold Champs 49, Pink Poodles 46, Purple Panthers 42 1/2 and Yellow Canaries 38 1/2.

Zimmermann Wins Mitchell Trophy

Skip Zimmermann won both races with Bill Boyce in a match series to determine the winner of the John and Kathryn Mitchell Memorial Trophy. Zimmermann took the honors in the first race Tuesday night and won the trophy Wednesday afternoon.

Zimmermann now has the Sunday Series Trophy, the Escanaba Daily Press Trophy and the Mitchell Memorial Trophy in his possession.

Zimmermann will now try to defend the Henes Cup Trophy for the Escanaba Yacht Club when challenging skippers from other ports come to Escanaba this weekend to try and capture the cup from the Escanaba Yacht Club. The first race is set for Saturday at 1 p.m. and the second at 3. The third race is scheduled for Sunday at 1 p.m.

History Repeats In Court Battle

WASHINGTON (AP) — History is repeating itself today—in reverse—in the fight over President Johnson's two Supreme Court nominations.

He has named Associate Justice Abe Fortas to succeed Chief Justice Earl Warren, and Federal Judge Homer Thornberry as associate justice.

Republicans are fighting the nominations on the ground that this should be the prerogative of the man who is elected president next November. Having said he would not seek re-election, Johnson is a "lame duck."

In 1960, nearing the end of his second term, Dwight D. Eisenhower was in the same position. Johnson Role Reversed the court should be filled while Congress was in recess. Eisenhower had appointed Warren in 1953 while Congress was out of session.

No vacancies occurred in 1960 but Democrats contended it would be awkward to confirm an appointee who already was sitting on the court.

Republicans argued that the Democrats' true intention in framing the resolution was to leave any seat unfilled, should a vacancy occur, until Eisenhower's successor was inaugurated. They hoped he would be John F. Kennedy.

No Appeal Coming On Housing Vote

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Corporation Counsel Robert Reese says he sees no reason to appeal a recent U. S. District Court decision which bars the city from holding a referendum on its fair housing ordinance.

Democrats denied any such motivation. The resolution was passed, 48 to 37.

Not Binding

The Constitution provides, however, that "The President shall have the power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the Senate."

Hence, the resolution was not binding.

It could have served, however, as a signal to the White House that if a vacancy occurred, the nominee might end counter some rough going before being confirmed by the Senate.

Now the shoe is on the other foot.

Democrats cite the provision in the Constitution and say the President had no choice but to fill the vacancy opened by Warren's announcement of his intention to retire.

Controversy Remains

A bloc of Republican senators contend that Warren's successor should be left to the next president. The selection, they argue, should await a determination of the national mood as demonstrated by the November election.

The controversy over Fortas in particular remains a substantial one. The opposition plans to filibuster if necessary to block his nomination during the current session of Congress.

And, as the Republicans did eight years ago, Democrats now contend that the Republicans want to delay the appointment in the hope that their presidential nominee, Richard M. Nixon, will be the man to name Warren's successor.

Briefly Told

Mrs. Dona Demars of 310 S. 16th St. is a patient at St. Francis Hospital after falling at her home Monday morning.

Wayne F. DeGrand, 19, of Bark River Rte. 1, entered a plea of guilty when arraigned in Municipal Court at Escanaba on Wednesday to a charge of simple larceny. He paid a fine of $25 and costs of $5 and was released. Escanaba police arrested DeGrand at 11:30 p. m. Tuesday in response to a complaint that gasoline was being siphoned from an automobile.

Romney Launches Drive To Pass Two Bond Issues

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney has turned his attention from the Republican ticket to the conservation ticket.

Romney Wednesday announced organization on a campaign to muster support for a $435 million clean water and quality recreation bonding program.

"Make the conservation ticket a winning ticket in November," Romney urged a Lansing luncheon attended by representatives of a cross section of the state's business and industry, organized labor, public health, conservation, religious and civic leadership.

The clean water and recreation bonding proposals will be propositions three and four on the November ballot.

Proposition three calls for a $335 million program to help local governments finance needed water pollution control measures.

Proposition four asks for a $100 million bond issue for state and local outdoor recreation projects.

GUARANTEE. Every new B.F. Goodrich passenger car tire not branded "second" is guaranteed for the life of the original tread, regardless of age or mileage, against defects in material and workmanship, and in normal non-commercial passenger car service, against failures caused by road hazards (not including repairable punctures). If such tire fails under this guarantee and is so damaged beyond repair, the owner will receive full allowance for remaining tread toward the purchase of a new tire of our manufacture at the then current retail "trade-in" price.
